RE: Deposit Account 503228

Two charges were applied to my deposit account that were not authorized by me. These charges appear on December 29 and have a docket number of T712-10, one charge is for $258 for fee code 1201 and one is for $252 for fee code 1202. I do not have any files that have that docket number and have not authorized any charges in that amount for any other of my files.

The docket number appears to be similar to docket numbers used by a company, Expanse Networks, that I used to work for several years ago. I called the company to inquire if the charges were associated with them, and they stated that they recently filed an amendment for a case having that docket number but they did not believe any fees were associated with the amendment and certainly did not associate that file with my deposit account.

These charges were not authorized by me and are not associated with any of my files and I therefore request a refund of the $510 as soon as possible. As a solo practitioner I would ask for expedited processing of this request as I do not have an abundance of capital to cover these erroneous charges to my deposit account.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions.

Regards,

Douglas J. Ryder
